Events

► The Nanaimo Chamber of Commerce will be hosting the 9th Annual Business Expo Thursday, October 20, 10:00 am-5:00 pm at the Vancouver Island Conference Centre. The trade show is targeted both to the public and for business to business marketing <http://nanaimochamber.bc.ca/chamber-events/business-expo-overview/>

Projects

► Construction is underway on the commercial/residential complex at the Island Highway and Shelly Road. Parksville Chrysler, dealer principal, Bruce Alexander is behind the development. Island West Coast Developments Ltd. is building it.

► Sunrise Ridge Waterfront Resorts' permit for 64 new units has officially been approved by Parksville Council. The resort's plan is to add 32 buildings, with two vacation rental units in each building.

Business Buzz

► A new clinic, Foundations, opened its doors in May. It combines registered massage therapy, therapeutic yoga, meditation, reiki and counselling. Foundations is located at 172 Weld St, Parksville.

► Mark and his sister Sari Smith have taken over Carstar Terminal Autobody (440 East Island Highway) from their dad Al Descoteau, who moved the business to Parksville from Nanaimo in 1979.

► Summit Log and Timber Homes has found a local partner and they sprung back to life early this year. Local manager Dave Jardine said they already have 13-14 employees in Errington and are growing quickly.
