▶ Have you considered a career as a Dental Office Receptionist but lack training and experience? If you are unemployed and actively seeking work, you may* be eligible for this fully funded training program. Participants will receive 3 weeks of Essential Employability Skills Development (Problem Solving, Reading, Writing, Numeracy, Team Building, Technology), and 10 weeks of specific training for Dental Office Administration (Dental Office File Management, Microsoft Office 365, Health Care Communication, Business Communication, Safety Protocol, CPR First Aid Certification Level 1, Patient Records Management, Dental Office Procedure, Dental Software Training, Dental Billing and Scheduling Procedures). The learning environment is online and in person. Individuals will participate in a 4 week practicum, and will also receive employment readiness training (Work Search, Resume Preparation, and Post-Work Experience Employment Supports).

*Eligibility for funded training programs determination based on individual's Employment Insurance (EI) or BC Employment and Assistance (BCEA) status. If you are unemployed and have either a current EI claim; or have received EI benefits in the past 5 years; or have earned more than $2,000 in insurable earnings and paid EI employee premiums on those earnings in at least 5 of the last 10 years (Note: the 5 years do not have to be consecutive), you may be eligible. Funding provided by a provincial Project-Based Labour Market Training project which supports the delivery of training benefiting the local community and eligible individuals to obtain the skills necessary to ensure employment readiness in occupations with an identified shortage of skilled workers.

Other requirements: Grade 12 or equivalent, English Language proficiency to CLB 5, Criminal Record Check, various vaccinations
