Business Buzz

► The Save-On-Foods store in Parksville (818 Island Hwy. W) had the grand opening for its wine department on the weekend. The Parksville location is the eighth grocery store in the province to have wine on its shelves, but first on the Island.

General Labour Market Information

► ITA and WorkBC has launched a new innovative online Apprentice Job Match tool which will better connect British Columbian apprentices looking for on-the-job training they need to boost their skills and achieve certification in their chosen trade. <http://www.itabc.ca/apprentice-job-match>

► The British Columbia government is increasing the minimum wage in two stages to better reflect the province's overall economic growth and ensure all workers benefit from BC's success. <https://news.gov.bc.ca/releases/2016PREM0048-000715>

► Cook, chef and baker programs are eligible under the BC Access Grant for Labour Market Priorities. The grant provides up to $16,400 in non-repayable grant and loan reduction funding. Under the grant, eligible students can receive funds for relocation and tools, as well as funds to reduce provincial student loans and supplement other StudentAid BC funding. Bakers, chefs and cooks are among the top 25 jobs requiring college or apprenticeship training in the 2024 Labour Market Outlook. <https://news.gov.bc.ca/releases/2016AVED0038-000650>
